From the Pastor's Desk

I have been blessed by God to have had the privilege to lead God's people at Redeemer in worship for six months. By God's grace we will install Pastor Canion on September 11th and my service will end. I will be able to retire once again, at least for a time. That is good, good for you and me. There are many things that do not get done during a vacancy, some of these your new pastor will be able to tend to, but others he too may not find the time or have the skills needed to do. Yet, if we each use the talents and skills God has given us and work together the work can be done. Yes, Pastor Canion will be different and that is good. I am different and use a different style in preaching than your previous pastors. Some may find that refreshing, others??? Pastor Canion will have his own style as well and prayerfully many will find that helpful to their growing in faith. But no matter, every one of the pastors that serve us, even those you have fond memories of, they all did the same thing. They preach and teach the Word of God in its truth and purity and administer the Sacraments faithfully. The result is that each one is able to grow in faith and service of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Let us fill the church for Pastor Canion's installation service, Sunday, September 11th at 2 pm. It will be a festival service filled with praise to our Lord with choirs, and visiting pastors leading us in thanking God for His gifts and encouraging us to use our gifts in service to God. Let us then continue to renew our commitment to faith and worship of our Savior the following Sundays by filling the church so that we can get to know Pastor Canion and he us. Join him in the Fellowship Hall starting already September 11th for these "get to know each other" sessions at 9:30.

I have enjoyed serving you and look forward to worshiping our Savior with you under Pastor Canion's leadership. May the Lord bless us all. Thank you!

Pastor Kruse

Sixth in the Church Basement Ladies series, Rise Up, O Men is a brand new musical comedy featuring the men of the church and your favorite church basement ladies who serve them. As these hard-working farmers discuss their scrap lumber piles and benefits of weld vs solder, they unintentionally disrupt the order of the kitchen. But that's what happens when you let the rooster in the hen house.

We will be stopping on the way home for Supper.

Trip sponsored by the Redeemer Fellowship Board

In the sixteenth chapter of the book of Acts the Apostle Paul and Barnabas had such a major disagreement that they went different directions. Imagine that, two devoted disciples so committed to sharing the love of Jesus that they could not stand to be around each other in the same ministry. In the end God blessed the efforts of both Paul and Barnabas even though they could not get along.

The Christian church today is made up of imperfect people serving a perfect God in the best way we know how. Sometimes the way we see serving and worshipping does not agree with the next person in the pew. Like Paul and Barnabas we are going to have a different opinion of what should happen in the life of the church. These opinions have been formed by our life in the church growing up and our life experiences. The question does not revolve around whether or not each one of us has a different opinion; the question revolves around what we will do when we are faced with multiple variables and options.

I too have my own thoughts and opinions based on a lifetime of serving in the church. I too need to remember the scriptural passages of a Jewish carpenter stressed in a garden to the point that He sweat blood. He put aside His own humanity and future to die in the most humiliating way. What could this group of believers accomplish if we put aside our own opinions and put on the mind of Christ? We will fully realize our potential or will we choose to fall away?
...The future has yet to be explored...

Pastor Matthew Canion

INSTALLATION for Pastor Matthew Canion is Sunday, September 11th, at 2:00 pm. A light lunch will be served in the Fellowship Hall directly after the service. A table will be set up for pantry items and a basket for cards. Please come and welcome our new pastor and his family to Redeemer!

Sincere Faith Commitment

"I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and I am persuaded, now lives in you also."

These encouraging words that Paul shares with his mentee Timothy are great reminder to us of the importance of all generations are in the process of faith education and growth. As we get ready to start a new Sunday school year I want to share with you all, how very proud I am of the Board of Education members here at Redeemer for the past 2 months they have been working hard at their regular meetings putting in time to evaluate and examine some of the things that we have been doing currently in educational ministry at Redeemer and some areas that we would like to see some improvement.

Over the course of 2 meetings the group spent time looking at strengths, weakness, opportunities and challenges faced in our current education ministry. Here are some of the goals the group came up with out of those sessions.

Board of Education GOALS FOR 2016-2017

- 1. Family Education. Offering education opportunities for the whole family (openings, short commitments service projects, bible studies, etc.).
- 2. Family Involvement. Invite parents/guardians to be involved in their children's faith education.
- 3. Teachers. Encourage and equip our Sunday school teachers so they are excited to share the Gospel with children and families each week.

Family Education - The group discussed the need and opportunity to offer more educational opportunities for the entire family and plans are being made already to reach this goal. Events like the Women's Retreat September 17th featuring Beth Moore, Sunday morning Adult Bible study being led by Pastor Matt & Cassie in the fellowship hall, men's Saturday morning Bible study, new Women's Bible study Entrusted on 2 Timothy starting October 5 and our new Sunday morning education hour for kids 3yrs-6th grade called Kingdom Quest. We are excited to offer these opportunities for both kids and adults.

Family Involvement - We have always strived to include parents in the faith growth of their children but decided we need to boost up our efforts. Watch for opportunities throughout the school year to be a part of Sunday morning Kingdom Quest Sunday school or other areas to serve. Join us November 6th as we gather together as a Redeemer family to pack shoeboxes full of items for our Fall offering project Operation Christmas Child.

Teachers/Shepherds - Our last goal really looked at connecting with our Sunday morning teachers and how we could encouraging them in their faith and help them as they prepare to love and lead kids to Jesus on Sunday mornings. One transition we are already working on is no longer calling them teachers but Shepherds as they really do lead our young sheep (kids) through God's word each Sunday. On August 27 & 30 our board met with 14 shepherds and substitute shepherds to share with them the upcoming changes to our Sunday morning curriculum and to encourage them as they start a new year.

We are excited to have you join us as we start a new school year at Redeemer and look forward to having you involved in some way.

Blessings in Christ, Cassie Drenkow, Director of Christian Education

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

The Perfect Pastor – A computerized study tells how to identify the “perfect pastor”.

He preaches exactly 15 minutes, condemns sin, but never offends anyone and works from 8 am to midnight. He’s good at janitor work, makes $50 a week, wears good clothes, buys good books, and drives a good car. He is 28 years old and has been preaching 30 years. He has a burning desire to work with teenagers but spends all his time visiting senior citizens.

The perfect pastor smiles all the time with a straight face because he has a sense of humor that keeps him seriously dedicated to his work. He makes 15 calls daily on parish families, shut-ins and the hospitalized, spends all his time evangelizing the unchurched and is always available in his office.

If your pastor doesn’t measure up to these standards, mail this letter to six churches, bundle him up and send him to the top name on the list. In one week, you will receive 1,643 pastors, and one should be perfect. Have faith in this letter. One church broke the chain and got its old pastor back in less than three months.

A new school year is about to begin! With that can come many stressors for both the students and the parents. Change is the name of the game right now. For most of us this change is slight. There may be a reluctance to give up the summer routine but we tend to adjust quickly especially since it is a familiar process.

Many of Redeemer's preschoolers are first-time students. This new change will likely prompt some separation anxiety. The hardest part for parents and teachers is determining what is the biggest stressor. Sometimes it is not about leaving mom or dad. I had one little gal that didn't want to sit on the rug at circle time. But until she verbalized that to us morning drop off was not a pleasant time.

Each year we teachers reassure parents that we have successfully worked through some difficult cases of separation anxiety over the years. With teamwork and a lot of prayer we will do so again this school year.

Over the years we have collected a "bag of tricks" that can help.

*have a set routine in the morning-predictability is assuring.

*parent's emotions are felt by your children. Stay serene and cheerful

*drop off quickly-one hug and a good-bye. They will find you if you hang out by the door. An exception to this is if you set up a routine for each day "mom will help you start a puzzle or bring you to the block area". Make sure this routine works with the classroom schedule and determine an end date.

*give them a sticker or a token that can be rubbed or held as reassurance of your return.

*use a picture schedule to review when you will pick up.

*and always remember to: "Cast your burdens (anxieties) unto Jesus for He cares for you!" 1 Peter 5:7

...a fun place to play and learn!

In Christ, Rachel Jeppesen

Was It You?

Was it you . . . who spoke to that couple in the parking lot last Sunday morning? I heard you greet them cheerfully with, "Good morning, I'm so glad to see you today!"

Was it you . . . with the happy smile and hearty handshake who greeted folks out in the hallway between services Sunday? One of those you greeted remarked, "That man really cared that we had chosen his church for worship this morning."

Was it you . . . who noticed those visitors who were seated near you? It helped when you introduced yourself and your wife to them and to some of your friends close by. You hit the 1,000% mark when you accompanied them to the door and introduced them to the preacher.

Was it you . . . who noticed a member who looked a little "down" and then took time to talk to him/her earnestly about God's love and concern? Everyone comes to church with some burden. It helps so much when concerned Christians help "bear one another's burdens" (Gal. 6:2)

Was it you . . . who last week entertained some of our new members in your home? If you have ever been new in a community, you know how much an invitation like that means. How important it is that we reach out to new members!

Was it you . . . Well, if it were, you were a blessing to those who are important to God. In these many ways, you help Christ to minister to people when you greet visitors, seek out the lonely and show hospitality to fellow Christians. This kind of positive, excited, happy attitude will do more to build up the body of Christ than anything else. And the wonderful thing about it is . . . everyone can do it!

3rd through 6th Grade Students & Parents:

On Wednesday nights during Advent, your child will have the opportunity to work on a nativity set. Rachel Jeppesen has offered to pour the pieces for the 4th-6th graders. Ken Nash has also graciously offered to make the stable kits each year for our 3rd graders. By the time your child is in 6th grade, they will have completed a stable and 15 ceramic nativity pieces. What a wonderful keepsake for your child.

It is once again time to sign up for this project. We need to know by Sunday, October 9 if you would like to participate in this activity. If you are new to Redeemer and would like to “catch up” on your pieces, you may sign up to do more than your “assigned” year of pieces. We will help you get caught up! We will not have a lot of extra sets on hand, so we do need to know by October 9 if you would like to do them.

Dear Parents,

Do you have a son or daughter attending college this Fall?

Getting acclimated to being away from home and away from their home church are two very significant challenges that young Christian students face in their first weeks on a college campus.

Just as important as selecting a college or university, picking a major and scheduling classes, is finding a good campus ministry or local church. Here your son or daughter can be served with Christ’s Word and Sacrament while they are away from home, and where opportunities are provided to join together with other Lutheran students on campus for service and social activities.

To assist your college student in staying connected with God’s life-giving gifts while at school, we encourage you to contact an LCMS campus ministry or congregation near their college campus. Please fill out the information below and return this form to your church office to be forwarded to their respective campus ministry.
